

Come and get it: Straight talk on selling a house in a down market

9 PM, Aug. 17, 2011

FILED UNDER

Press Release

PRESS RELEASE: direct from Woodlands at Furman

GREENVILLE, S.C. – The Woodlands at Furman is hosting a seminar on August 25 at the Yount Center on the Furman University campus focused on straight talk and long-range views about the Upstate's economy and housing forecasts.

John Spooner, a nationally recognized expert in senior living trends, will be the keynote speaker at the symposium that starts at 11:45 a.m. and includes lunch. The event is geared for seniors looking to sell their homes or trying to figure out their long-term retirement plans.

With 25-plus years of experience in researching, marketing and developing retirement communities across the country, Spooner knows the tremendous advantages of Life Care retirement communities such as The Woodlands at Furman.

Spooner will help area residents answer their most pressing questions when it comes to future plans. Call 1-866-648-4297 to attend.

The Woodlands at Furman is a non-profit, mission driven continuing care retirement community owned and operated by a local board of directors and managed professionally by Greystone Communities. The 22-acre campus, adjacent to Furman University, opened in March 2009 and consists of 132 apartment homes in addition to 32 assisted living apartments, 16 memory support suites and 30 skilled nursing suites. Residents enjoy a wide range of amenities - enabling them to continue an active and engaged lifestyle. For more information, please visit www.thewoodlandsatfurman.org or call 864-371-3100.

